The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

Claims 1-3 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention. The phrase “the safety hook”, as set forth in claim 1, lacks antecedent basis.

The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

Claims 1 and 2 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being clearly anticipated by Smith. Smith shows a first rod member 21, a second rod member 22, and a plurality of fastening device 11 and 12.

Claims 1 and 2 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being clearly anticipated by Yeamans et al. Yeamans shows a first rod member 14, a second rod member 16, and a plurality of fastening device 26 and 28.
